SUPPLEMENT

1. Soviet activity in Tsingtao does not appear to be organized. It is the opinion of source that it will not be until the Tsingtao Soviet representative, Mr. Leltchilsky, is replaced by a forceful personality with definite Soviet backing. If this is done, the Soviet colony, which now seems to be splitting into cliques, could be welded into the most important foreign force in Tsingtao. The Chinese continue to show open hostility toward the Soviets. Anti-American propaganda is prevalent, and although it is believed to circulate as idle talk rather than an organized effort, the effect is the same.
